

4
Physical Observations,

For the Year 1671.

Monthly Collected,

FROM

The most material Disposition, of the Celestial Bodies, in the same Year.

WHEREIN

Is clearly discovered those sundry Diseases, and Distempers, which will befall those Persons who shall be taken Sick, at those certain Days, and Times, mentioned therein; And whether the Patient so afflicted, shall Live or Dye.

By William Andrews, Student in ASTROLOGY.

Inferiora reguntur a superioribus.

LONDON, Printed by E. Crouch, for Thomas Vere, at the Angel without New-gate. 1671.

To the Reader.

Mors omnibus communis, To every thing there is a Season, and a time to every purpose under the Heaven: says the wise King Solomon. There's a time to be Born, and a time to Dye: which daily experience verifies. The Holy Apostle Saint Paul, or the Author to the Hebrews, expressly tells us: Illud Statutum est hominibus ut semel Moriantur, Death happens to every degree, and sort of people, High and Low, Rich and Poor, all must dye: which Horace an Heathen Poet excellently thus expresseth:

Pallida mors æquo pulsat pede,
Pauperum tabernas, regumque turres.

And as all must dye: so Sickness is the Fore-runner, and Messenger of Death unto all. For as the Learned Cornelius Agrippa, in the third Book of his Occult Philosophy, Cap. 37. affirms, when by a Disease or some mischief, the middle things (as he there calleth them) are dissolved, or fail, then the Soul it self, by those said middle things recollecteth it self, and floweth back into the heart, (which is (as he conceiveth) the receptacle of the Soul: but (saith he) the spirit of the heart failing, and heat being extinct, it leaveth him, and Man dyeth, &c.

Now the Stars have great force and efficacy, as in Relation unto the State and Constitution, &c. of Mans body: and have great signification (also) as unto the Diseases and Distempers, incident unto Mankind. For without dispute Corpora superiora occultam quandam vim & virtutem ex motu suo, lumine, & influxu in corpora humana infundunt, per quam humores in corporibus nostris mutantur, & diminuuntur secundum siderum positum, & qualitatem. The consideration whereof; has put me upon this present subject: wherein is Monthly collected the sundry Diseases and Distempers, which are designed by the Cælestial bodies, to happen unto those persons which shall be taken sick at any of those times mentioned herein.

To the Reader.

Assuredly, every Man and Woman has their Crilis, or Critical times. And even these very times of this Year of 1671. which are herein mentioned, are, and may very well be esteemed very remarkable, for any Person to be taken Sick in; yet such as are, may be hereby informed of their distemper: and come to understand what signification the Heavens has towards them.

The Rules themselves are as ancient as Hermes, though collected into another form; and not till now applied unto particular days and times: which shall be further hereafter annually advanced and continued, (Deo permittente) by me, if this shall find acceptance. And let it not seem strange, that the observations of January following, herein are more full and significant, then many other of the following Months, and that many days and times of the other Months, are referred thither (sith one person may be taken sick in one Month, &c. and another person may two or three Months after be taken with the same distempers,) which happens in regard of the various Course and Configurations of Heaven.

At present, from Radwinter, near Saffron-Walden in Essex,
October 24th. 1670.

Will, Andrews,

Physical

Physical Observations,

For the Year 1671.

Monthly Collected,

FROM

The most material Disposition, of the Cælestial Bodies in the same Year.

Januaries Observations.

Whoever shall fall Sick, upon the fourth The 4th. day. day of this Month, about five or six of the Clock in the Morning: will be afflicted with cold distillations: and will be molested with continual Feavers; very much subject unto sighing. Extensions of the Præcordiacks, or Heart-strings, prickings or shootings about the breast and stomach. The throat much oppressed with thick flegme, abundance of watry matter will lodge in the Stomach. The Sick will be troubled with a rotten Cough, and the original of the disease comes from a great cold formerly taken.

Who-

Phyſical Obſervations,

The 6th day. Whoſoever ſhall be taken Sick upon the ſixth day of this Month, about 1 or 2 a clock in the morning: Their diſeaſe will proceed from diſtempers of the Brain. High and continual Feavers, little reſt or quietneſs will attend the ſick party. A hot thirſty Mouth, dryneſs of the Tongue, and much deſire of drink. A hot Liver or inflammation thereof: much heat in the breaſt. High Pulſes keeping no order, a Frenſy may be feared, or depravation of Senſes. The diſeaſe will be much in the Head. The ſick party almoſt ready to run mad, as being much grieved in the brain: as alſo in the Belly or ſmall Guts, occaſioned by Chollerick obſtructions. Gliſters, letting of Blood, and ſuch things as coole and nourishing, will be very healthful.

The 7th day. Thoſe that fall ſick, &c. upon the ſeventh day hereof, about 11 or 12 of the clock at night: will be alſo ſubject unto the laſt before mentioned diſtempers, but not in ſo violent a manner, but will appear more favourable.

The 8th day. And thoſe that ſhall fall ſick upon the 8th. day, about 2 or 3 in the morning, will be much moleſted with Feavers, proceeding from obſtructions and diſtempers of the Præcordiacks and Areries, namely of the inward parts, near the Heart, Liver, and Lungs, occaſioned either from Surſits, or inordinate repletion, or to much Luxury; their Pulſes will be lofty and high, but immoderate: a puffing up of the body, Ulceration of the Lungs. Thoſe Medicines which purge and diſperſe groſs humours will be profitable, as alſo Phlebotomy, &c. The ſick will hardly eſcape: and will hardly live 14 days, unleſs favoured by ſome good Aſpect of Heaven in that time.

The 10th day. Thoſe which ſhall fall ſick upon the 10th. day of this Month, about four of the clock in the afternoon: will have the original of their diſeaſe, occaſioned by wearineſs of the mind, being overcharged with multiplicity of affairs, or by ſome wearineſs in travel, or by overmuch exerciſe of body, fear of a ſmall Feaver. The pain will endeavour to diſperſe and ſcatter it ſelf all over the body: but will chiefly appear in the Areries or Joynts. The vitals will be much afflicted, the ſick inclining unto a Conſumption.

The

Monthly Collected.

The Pulse rare and little; the sick afflicted with frequent sweating. Some simtomes of the Spleen. The infirm party will be afflicted more in the night then in the day. The 12th.

Those that shall fall sick upon the 12th. day hereof, about 8 or 9 of the clock at night, will be senceible of abundance of sweet flegm in the Stomach: having taken some surfit, oft will vomit, or desire so to do, with reversion or turning of the ventticle. The disease seem to be an absolute Surfit, by riot or excess; Vomitting may prove a good remedy, perhaps a looseness, or a rotten filthy cough or spitting of blood will attend the sick party.

Whosoever shall fall sick upon the 15th. day of this Month, about four in the morning: any one falling sick, the disease will proceed from too much abundance of blood, strong feavers, raving, or strong fits: a disturbed brain, loss of appetite, heaviness and drowsiness all over the body: many distempers of the heart. The body will be in danger of a Consumption. Death may be feared about the 24th. or 25th. day hereof. Assuredly the blood will prove overheated: the party much out of order in his head and brain. Aprobability of the Plurisy, Faintings, or Swondings: the heart very much distempered. Choller will much abound in the body, it being dried up much thereby. The 15th.

Whosoever shall fall sick upon the 15th. day, about 3 in the afternoon: the disease will proceed of ill Melancholly blood, the sick will be oppressed with unkind heat in the brest. Extensions of the heart strings, with violent feavers the Pulses troubled: outward and inward heat will much disturb the sick: who will be subject unto faintings of heart, perhaps subject unto some fit of the Stone, and also unto sounding, if this sickness shall continue long, expect the black Jaundies. The sick party will be in danger of death. Such things as gently moisten, and heat, will in some measure relieve the Sick. The 15th. day, about 3 afternoon.

Those which shall fall sick, &c. upon the 17th. day of this Month about noon, or one of the clock in afternoon: the sickness will arise from Crudities and evil distempers in the Stomach, and from flegm. Obstructions in the Bowels. The 17th. day.

Physical Observations,

Bowels and Intralles, pricking and shouting under the ribs, in ordinate feavers. The wind Chollick, or extream Melanchollyness. Gout or Aches in the Thighs or Feet, molest the sick party. Things which mollifie heat and dissolve, will be profitable, &c. the sickness appearing now, will continue a long time, especially if accompanied with an Ague: which may in some measure be feared.

*The 20th.
day.*

Whosoever shall fall Sick upon the 20th. day, about 9 or 10 of the clock in the morning: will be grieved with plenitude of blood, and from that cause hath intended feavers, high Pulses, no natural rest or kind sleep, but an inflammation all over the body. The sick much oppressed with blood overheated, has taken some Surfit, by disorderly diet. A touch of the Stone or Gravel in the Kidneys, or perhaps great heat therein. Glisters will in these cases be profitable, and such things as gently cool. The Disease it's probable will touch the body all over. Blood letting will be good: for a violent feaver will according to the disposition of the Stars, at this time (according to all likelihood) attend the Sick.

*The 23th.
day.*

He, or she, that shall happen to be taken sick, upon the 23th. of this very Month of January, about 3 or 4 of the clock in the morning, will be much infirmed in the privy parts, and subject to some Ulcers in those places. The Pox small or French (or Meazels if Children.) The Hemeroids, or Piles, snuffling in the head, or some grievous colds, or rhums in that member. The party will be Scabby, and breaking out, if not some Female disease secretly gotten. Corruption of the blood such things as heat and comfort, may prove necessary. There will be cause to mistrust, that this disease will be a scandalous One.

*The 24th.
day.*

Those that shall fall sick, &c. upon the 24th. day, about 8 or 9 of the clock in the morning, will be sencibly oppressed with Dropfical humours, offending and swelling them: about the knees or leggs, perhaps a flux attends the Sick, or if a Man, the Gonorrhea, if a Woman, too much abundance of Menstruas. There's no retention of Urine, the party will seem to be perplexed with the Stone in the Bladder:

Monthly Collected.

der : or some botch in the privy Members , or some Ulceration or Bubo , or somewhat subject to the Hemeroids or Piles, or some Ulcer or disease, appears in Ano.

Whosoever shall fall sick upon the 25th. day, &c. about The 25th.
2 or 3 of the clock in the morning, will be molested with deflux of subtil thinn, and sharp humours : griefs in the Arteries or Joynts , fear of a feaver : extremity of heat and cold many times. A double access of a feaver. The disease will seem to proceed from blood infected ; with Choller and Melancholly : or by too much great pains taking, or some violent exercise, and cold there upon taken. A spice of the Gout , or some Tumour, or swelling in the Hands , Thighs, or Feet. It may prove a violent burning feaver.

Those that shall fall sick upon the 28th. day, about 3 or The 28th.
4 of the clock in the morning : Choller will abound, the Sick will desire to Vomit. There will be no perfect concoction, a swelling or puffing up of the Sinews, a flux of the belly may be feared immediately, continual or oft returning feavers, inflammation in the brest , inappetency of the ventricle : some ulceration it's probable may offend the Sick party, or Chollerick humour appears in the hands or joynts of the fingers. Obstructive, and astringent Medicines will be useful. The Pulses will be remis and slow. The Sick party inclining to the yellow Jaundies. The countenance meagre, and the person exceeding lean. The blood all over the body seems disaffected , and the disease will be very hardly cured by the most Learned. Little blood, or corrupted in a high measure.

Those that shall fall sick, &c. upon the 30th. day, &c. The 30th.
about 3 or 4 in the afternoon , their sickness will proceed from most sharp and violent affections , or vehement passions, much grieved at the heart , troubled with sounding fits, inclining unto a most desperate feaver. The blood swelling in all the veins, high Pulses, the Sick will complain of pain at the brest , and will draw wind with difficulty ;
when the ☽ comes to her first ☐, or when she comes to ☿
of that degree of the Zodiack she was in at the first lying down of the Sick , if any favourable Planet cast any good

Physical Observations,

Aspect unto her, the sick party will be in a possibility of recovery after twenty days.

*The 31th.
day.*

And those that shall happen to fall sick upon the 31th. of this Month, between 7 and 11 at night: the distempers will appear to be such, as are mentioned upon the fourth day hereof, but some what more prevalent.

Februaries Observations.

The 3th.day.

Those that shall be taken sick upon the 3d. day of this Month of February, about 5 or 6 of the clock at night: will be subject unto those infirmities, mentioned upon the 6th. day of the other Month past, viz, January.

The 6th.day.

Those that shall fall sick, &c. upon the 6th. day of this Month, about 7 or 8 of the clock of the morning: the distemper will arise from too much blood. Continual fevers. The whole frame of the body obstructed. Inflammation of the Throat, Neck, and hinder part thereof: unquiet slumbers, but little kind of sleep. The Sick will desire Wine or cold Water to drink. Blood letting, and such things, as will allay heat, will be necessary. Perhaps a Pestilent soare throat, or hoarsnes attend the Sick, or the Strangury, Stone, or Gravel in the Reins or Kidneys.

The 7th.day.

Whosoever shall fall sick, &c. upon the 7th. day hereof, about 2 or 3 of the clock in the morning: will be afflicted with such distempers, as are specified upon the 10th. day of January past.

*The 10th.
day.*

And those that shall fall sick upon the 10th. day, about 3 or 4 of the clock in the afternoon: will be sensible of such infirmities, as are mentioned upon the 12th. day of January.

*The 13th.
day.*

Those which shall happen to be taken sick upon the 13th. day of this Month, about 6 or 7 of the clock at night: will have some flux or ulceration in the belly. Small fevers. The original of the disease will proceed from Choller and Melancholly. The Pulse remiss, eversion of the Ventricle, loathing

Monthly Collected.

loathing of food happens, and also Death will appear within thirty days, unless the Aspects of Heaven prove favourable in that time, as unto Sick. The Sick tormented with the wind Chollick, and weakness of the Leggs. The sickness at this time, will not be easily removed.

Whosoever shall be sick, &c. about the 14th. day of The 14th. this Month, about 2 or 3 of the clock in the morning, or day. about 2 or 3 in the afternoon: will be lyable to the distempers, mentioned at January the 17th. unto which I refer you.

Whosoever shall fall sick upon the 18th. day hereof, The 18th. about 10 or 11 of the clock before noon, will be possessed day. with those bodily griefs, specified at the 23th. of January last past, but a far worse manner.

Those which fall sick upon the 21th. day of this Month The 21th. of February, about 1 or 2 of the clock after noon, will be day. likewise subject unto the bodily distempers, as are set forth at the 25th. of January last past.

Those which shall be taken sick upon the aforesaid 21th. The 21th. day, about 10 or 11 at night, will be grieved with a very day, at 10 or desperate disease, occasioned by surfeiting and Drunkenness, or Gluttony, or too much repletion, tormented with high fevers, and Chollerick passions, perhaps with the flux or lask. The Pulses feeble and faint, and will beat at sometimes very slow and weakly. If the Sick shall escape the 7th. day, after the first falling sick, or when Ψ comes to her first \square of her true place, at the first falling sick: the worst will seem in some measure to be over. 'Tis probable the Sick parties blood will prove much overheated, by some inordinate exercise. Burns extreamly, perhaps needs bleeding once or twice, by reason of the malignancy of the disease.

Those which shall happen to be forced to take their bed The 26th. upon the 26th. day, about 1 or 2 in the morning: will be day. oppressed with such diseases, as are mentioned upon the 30th. of January, but not in so violent a manner.

And those that shall fall sick upon the 27th. day, about The 27th. & 10 or 11 of the clock at night, or upon the 28th. day at 10 28th. day.

Phyſical Obſervations,

or 11 before noon : will be oppreſſed with diverſe diſtempers and infirmities of the nature of thoſe , which we have before inſerted at the 24th. of January , but in a more violent manner, and will be more durable and laſting.

Marches Obſervations.

The 4th. day. Whoſoever ſhall be taken ſick upon the 4th. day hereof, about 10 or 11 in the forenoon : will be much oppreſſed with ſuch diſtempers, as has been before by me mentioned at the 6th. of January, but in a more powerful manner.

The 5th. and 6th. day. Thoſe that ſhall fall ſick upon the fifth day , about 9 or 10 of the clock at night : as alſo upon the 6th. day hereof, about 2 or 3 in the afternoon, will be afflicted as upon the 10th. day of January, &c. before mentioned.

The 7th. day. Whoſoever ſhall fall ſick upon the 7th. day hereof, about 10 or 11 of the clock in the morning, will undergo, a ſharp and dangerous fever. Obſtructions high, and inordinate pulſes will attend the Sick. The blood will be too hot, and a neceſſity will appear of emission of the ſame. The whole body being near corruption , by reaſon of the rankneſs of blood. The Sick pained all over the body. The diſeaſe will appear in no place ſetled. The blood ſome what windy. Corrupted & quid non ? ſome grief or lameneſs in the arms or joints , or the Sick troubled with Stone, or heat in the Reins, if not ſpitting of blood.

The 11th. day. Whoſoever ſhall happen to be taken ſick, upon the 11th. day of this Month of March, about 10 or 11 of the clock, in the morning : will be ſenſible of ſuch bodily afflictions and diſtempers , as are deſcribed upon the 15th. day of January paſt, &c.

The 13th. day. And thoſe that ſhall fall ſick upon the 13th. day, &c. about 1 or 2 of the clock in the morning : And alſo at 2 or 3 in the after ; of the ſame day will be oppreſſed with thoſe infirmities, ſpecified at January the 17th. &c.

Thoſe

Monthly Collected.

Those which shall be taken with sickness upon the 15th. The 15th. day hereof, their distempers will appear of the nature of day. those inserted at the 20th. of January: provided they be taken sick about 10 or 11 in the forenoon of the said 15th. day of this March, &c.

Those which shall fall sick, &c. upon the 19. day, about The 19th. 9 or 10 in the morning, will undergo it's probable some day. scandalous disease, &c. or be lyable to be mistrusted, that the original of the distemper at this very time, will appear from some venerous Actions, &c. at the 23th. of January past, you may be informed more upon recourse thereunto, for the body will be afflicted with such griefs and infirmities, as are mentioned, but will be of a more strong and dangerous consequence.

Whosoever shall fall sick, &c. upon the 21. day, &c. The 21th. from 4 to 7 of the clock in the morning: will be sensible day. of those bodily infirmities, largely described at the 25th. of January past, &c.

Whosoever shall fall sick, &c. upon the 28th. day, about The 23th. 2 or 3 of the clock in the afternoon: will be afflicted in day. body, as is mentioned at the 28th. of January.

Those which shall fall sick upon the 26th. day, about 8 The 26th. or 9 at night, will be afflicted in their bodies, as is expressed day. at the 30th. of January past, but not in so violent a manner.

Those that shall fall sick upon the 28th. day hereof, about The 28th. 2 or 3 in the morning, or 3 or 4 in the afternoon, will be day. much oppressed with Melancholly, and from distempers thence arising. The Sick will be very drowsie, heavy, and dull, will speak very little: possibly has taken some grief, an Ague may be expected, the Sick very chilly and cold, and subject to those distempers, described upon January the fourth.

And whosoever shall fall sick, &c. upon the 30th. day, The 30th. about 10 or 11 before noon, will be attended with violent day. hot distempers all over the body, especially the head, and brain will be much afflicted, the Sick will take little or no rest, will be in danger of death. And the small Pox, Meazels,

Physical Observations,

zels, or some violent feaver will it's very probable seise upon the party, which shall now be taken sick as aforesaid. And the Sick will be afflicted in some measure, as is mentioned upon the 6th. day of January, &c.

April's Observations,

The 2d. day. THose which shall fall sick upon the second day hereof, about 3 or 4 of the clock in the morning, will be much distempered by extremity of heat, their blood will be much out of order, and the Sick will be sensible of a very high feaver: immoderate Pulses. The blood much corrupted and rank, and the Sick will be subject in a very great measure unto those distempers, mentioned at the 7th. day of March, but the Sick will appear in a more dangerous condition, then is mentioned there.

The 3d. day. The sickness and distempers, of those which shall fall sick upon the third day hereof, about 4 or 5 in the morning: will be much of the nature of those mentioned at January the 15th. &c,

The 4th. day Those which shall happen to be taken sick upon the 4th. day, &c. about 8 or 9 of the clock in the morning: will be much afflicted in the breast, with tough Mellancholly matter, or with slimy thick flegm: will be molested with a cough, or much moisture. Catarres, Hoarsness, distillations of Rheums, or falling down of humours into the breast: their Pipes will be some what narrow and obstructed: small feavers. Aprobability of a Quotidian Ague, but it may prove a Quartan Ague: holding some long time, but the violence of these distempers will not presently appear.

The 6th. day. Those which shall fall sick upon the 6th. day, &c. about 3 or 4. in the morning, will be much subject unto those distempers, mentioned at the 12th. day of January past.

The 9th. day Whosoever shall fall sick upon the 9th. day, at 6 or 7 in the morning: will be troubled with gripings in the belly, and much pain there. It's probable the Sick will be much tormented with the wind Chollick, and such distempers as are

Monthly Collected.

are mentioned at February the 13th. but in a more milder way.

The distempers of those that shall fall sick, &c. upon the The 10th.
10th. day hereof, about 3 or 4 in the morning: will be of day.
the nature of those, specified at January the 17th.

Those that shall fall sick upon the 12th. day hereof, a- The 12th.
bout 2 or 3 in the afternoon: their sickness will proceed day.
from some Surfit, by Wine, Gluttony, or too much Venery: the brest will appear afflicted, and also the head. A Cough, Hoarsness, loathing in the Stomach, and distillations of Rheums will molest the Sick: who will be subject to pains in the Joynts, Knees, and Thighs, and an Itching sometimes in those members. The Siatica may be feared.

Whosoever shall be taken sick upon the 14th. day, &c. The 14th.
about 4 or 5 of the clock in the morning: will be in a great day.
measure sensible of those infirmities, described at the 23th.
of January.

The distempers of those that shall fall sick upon the 17th. The 17th.
day hereof, about 6 or 7 of the clock in the morning: will day.
be of the nature of those specified at February the 21th.
but in a more fierce manner. And those that shall fall sick, the same day at 6 or 7 in the afternoon, will be oppressed as at January the 25th.

Those which shall fall sick upon the 21th. day, about 8 The 21th.
or 9 of the clock in the morning: their sickness will be oc- day.
casioned from too much labour, toyling, or weariness of the body and mind, want of sleep, and due refreshment of nature. The sick will be grieved with wind, or noise in the head with faint fits or passions of the heart, a probability of a hoar throat, or rising, or swelling there, and the Sick will be in danger of suffocation.

Those which fall sick, &c. upon the 22th. day hereof, The 22th.
about 2 or 3 in the morning: will in all likelihood, be af- day.
flicted as upon January the 30th. but not in such a forcible manner.

The sickness and distempers, which will attend those The 24th.
persons, &c. which shall fall sick upon the 24th. day, at 1 day.
or 2, and also about 4 or 5 of the clock in the afternoon, will

Physical Observations,

will prove various and unconstant. The Sick be at first taken with extream cold or chilliness, or in an Aguish condition; afterwards will be sensible of great heat, and will appear very hot, and much out of order thereby: and 'twill prove a very unhandsom time for to be taken sick, in regard of the malevolent disposition of the Heavens at this time. The Sick will be sometimes subject to the distempers mentioned at January the fourth, and at other times lyable to those mentioned hereafter herein at September the 7th.

*The 28th.
day.*

Whosoever shall fall sick upon the 28th. day, about 6 or 7 of the clock at night: will be in a dangerous condition, and be much molested with distempers of contrary qualities, whereby the Sick will very hardly be cured. Sometimes the disease will appear, as mentioned upon the 6th. of February, and at other times, as is specified at January the 8th. but of a far stronger nature. The Sick will be Aguish and Feverish, in a high manner.

*The 30th.
day.*

And those that shall happen to be taken sick upon the 30th. day, about 8 or 9 at night: will be afflicted in the very self same manner, as is mentioned at the second day of this Month, and the seventh of March.

Mays

Monthly Collected.

Mays Observations.

THose which shall happen to fall sick upon the 5th. The 5th. day.
day of this Month of May, about 4 or 5 in the afternoon : will be molested with such distempers, as are mentioned at January the 15th. and the Sick will be in some danger of death.

Whosoever shall fall sick upon the 6th. day, about 11 or 12 in the forenoon : will be afflicted as at January the 17th. and so likewise will those which shall fall sick upon the 7th. day hereof, about 2 or 3. in the afternoon, but will appear in a worse condition, then those that shall sick upon the day before.

Whosoever shall be oppressed with sickness upon the 8th. day hereof, at 2 or 3 in the afternoon : will be afflicted, as at the 9th. of April, and in some measure, as is inserted upon the 13th. of February, but in a more milde way.

Those which shall happen to fall sick upon the 13th. day about 7 or 8 of the clock at night : will be much disturbed with such distempers, as are mentioned at the 21th. of February, but in a more furious manner.

The distempers of those that shall fall sick upon the 15th. day hereof, about 3 or 4 of the clock in the morning, as also about 10 or 12 of the clock of the same day, will be such as are inserted at the 25th. of January, but the Sick will be in great danger of death.

Those which shall fall sick upon the 16th. day hereof, about 1 or 2 in the morning, will be much molested with hot distempers, and lyable unto a most desperate fever, which will prove hard to be cured. The party will be extream hot and thirsty, and the blood much corrupted, the Sick not very well composed in Capite : but now and then much disturbed in that Noble member, whereby some idle discourse, or raging will attend the Sick, about the 23th.

Physical Observations,

or 24th. day hereof, the Sick will find a manifest alteration, death may be feared.

*The 21st.
day.*

Whosoever shall fall Sick upon the 21th. day hereof, about 10 or 11 of the clock before noon: will be much sensible of such distempers, as are mentioned upon the 7th. of September following.

*The 22th.
day.*

And whosoever shall happen to be taken sick upon the 22th. day, &c. about 2 or 3 in the morning: will be afflicted in the very same manner, as is inserted at the 4th. of January.

*The 23th.
day.*

The sickness and distempers of those, that shall fall sick upon the 23th. day, about 5 or 6 in the morning: will be much made up, &c. with humours of a contrary nature. The Sick will be sometimes cold, and sometimes hot, will appear in a feverish or aguish condition, and will partake of those distempers mentioned at January the 6th. and will be oppressed with heaviness of the head, or Rheyms falling down into the Nostrils, weak Pulses, and inordinate. The party Sick will be hot within, and cold without, and will be drowsie in mind, and subject unto intemperate or unseasonable sweats, and will be more afflicted by night then by day. The head-ach may be expected, snuffling in the head, distillations of Rheyms and corrupt humours, descending into the throat from the head. The stomach disaffected, purging may prove requisite.

*The 28th.
day.*

Those that shall fall sick, &c. upon the 28th. day, about 2 or 3 in the morning, will be oppressed with those distempers, mentioned at the second of April, and the 7th. of March. And whosoever shall fall sick the same day, about 7 or 8 of the clock in the morning, will be molested as at January the 10th.

*The 29th.
day.*

And those that shall fall sick the 29th day, between 1 and 10 of the clock at night: will undergo great danger, and be subject to a Hectick fever; and a Consumption will follow, &c. if the party do escape, which will be very hardly. The Sick will be much oppressed in the stomach, and be very thirsty. There will lodge in the stomach abundance of sweet flegm. The Sick will have desire to vomit,
and

Monthly Collected.

and has taken some Surfit, and will be troubled with a Cough.

Junes Observations.

THe sickness and distempers, of those which shall be taken Sick upon the third day hereof, about midnight, will be of the nature of those specified at January the 17. The 3th. day.

And those that shall fall sick upon the 4th. day, about 6 or 7 in the morning: will be afflicted as upon the 9th. of April, and 13th. of February past, but will not be so strongly afflicted, as at those times. The 4th. day.

Whosoever shall be sick upon the 5th. day hereof, &c. about 10 or 11 at night: will be subject to such kind of distempers, &c. as are before herein inserted at January the 20th. The 5th. day.

And those which shall happen to fall sick upon the 6th. day &c. about 9 or 10 in the morning: will be sensible in some measure of those distempers, expressed at the 12th. of April past. The 6th. day.

Those that shall fall sick, upon the 11th. day of this Month of June, about 1 of the clock afternoon: will be oppressed, as at January the 25th. The 11th. day.

Whosoever shall fall sick upon the 12 day, about 7 or 8 of the clock in the morning: will be even afflicted in body, as is specified at the 28th. of January past, but in a more stronger manner. The 12th. day.

Those which shall fall sick upon the 13th. day hereof, about 6 or 7 in the afternoon: will be sensible of very high distempers, and such as are mentioned upon the 12th. of January: but the sick will be in a more desperate condition, & in danger of death. And those that shall fall sick upon the same day, about 10 or 11 at night, will undergo such kind of grief and infirmities of body, as are specified upon the

Physical Observations,

10th. of July following, &c. This 13th. of June in the afternoon, will be an ill time to be taken sick.

The 18th.
day.

Those that shall fall sick upon this 18th. day of June, about 6 or 7 of the clock in the morning, will be afflicted as is aforesaid at January the 4th. unto which I refer you.

The 19th.
and 20th. day

Whosoever shall fall sick upon the 19th. day hereof, about 5 or 6 in the afternoon, as also upon the 20th. day about 6 or 7 after noon, will undergo such distempers, as has been herein described upon the 6th. of January, but in a milder manner. And those that shall fall sick upon the said 20th. day of June, about 11 in the forenoon, will be, &c. in some slight measure, as is mentioned at the 23th. of May last past.

The 24th.
day.

Those that shall fall sick, &c. upon the 24th. day, about 6 or 7 at night, will be afflicted, as is mentioned at the 10th. of January.

The 26th.
and 27th. day.

And whosoever shall fall sick upon the 26th. day hereof, about 10 or 11 of the clock before noon, will in all probability be strongly afflicted with those distempers, mentioned at the 12th. of January. And so likewise will those that shall fall sick upon the 27th. day hereof, about 8 or 9 in the morning: and will be dangerously taken. And whosoever upon this aforesaid 26th. day of June shall be taken sick about noon: will be very much afflicted in that very self same manner, as is mentioned at the 29th. of May past.

Julies

Monthly Collected.

Julies Observations.

THose that shall fall sick upon the first day of this The 1st. day.
Month of July, about 7 or 8 of the clock in the morning, will be subject unto those distempers, mentioned at the 7th. of January.

Those which shall fall sick upon the 3^d. day hereof, a- The 3th. day.
bout 3 or 4 in the morning, will be afflicted as upon April the 12th. And those that shall fall sick upon the same day, about 11 of the clock at night, will be subject unto such diseases, as are mentioned at January the 12th.

Those which fall sick upon the 4th. day, &c. about 7 The 4th. day of the clock afternoon, will be afflicted, as upon the 23th.
day of January, but in a far worse manner. The disease will be a secret one: and in the secret parts.

Whosoever shall happen to be taken sick upon the 8th. The 8th. day.
day, about eight of the clock at night: will be sensible of such distempers, as are mentioned at January the 23th.

Those that shall fall sick upon the 10th. day hereof, a- The 10th.
bout 1 or 2 of the clock in the afternoon: their sickness day.
will proceed from cold or Melancholly, with subtil thin di-stillations, heaviness of the brest and stomach: the sick will be subject to dry Coughs: difficulty of breathing, intended feavers: the Lungs will be oppressed. The Sick will be more oppressed in the night then in the day. Medicines that heat and moderatly moisten, will be very necessary. The Sick will much complain of pain in the head, and of the head-ach, or of a rumbling noise in the head, or of pain in the left ear.

Those that shall happen to be taken sick upon the 11th. The 11th.
day hereof, about 10 or 11 of the clock at night: will be day.
oppressed with such distempers, as are mentioned upon the 12th. of January. And the Sick will appear in a very desperate condition.

Those

Physical Observations,

*The 12th.
day.*

Those that shall fall sick upon the 12th. day about noon, will be sadly oppressed and afflicted with such distempers, as are specified at January the 30th.

*The 15th.
day.*

The sickness and diseases of those persons which shall be taken sick upon the 15th. day hereof, about 3 or 4 in the afternoon, will be such as are inserted before herein, at the 17th. of January past.

*The 17th.
day.*

Whosoever shall chance to be taken sick upon the 17th. day hereof, about 11 in the forenoon; will be oppressed in the same manner, as is inserted at the 23th. of May, beginning their at these words, viz: Oppressed with heaviness of the head Rheums falling down into the Nestrils, &c. from thence to the end of the observations, of that 23th. day there mentioned.

*The 18th.
day.*

Those that shall fall sick upon the 18th. day of this Month of July, about 11 or 12 at night: as also upon the 19th. day, about 7 or 8 in the morning: will be afflicted as at the 6th. of February.

*The 24th.
day.*

Those which shall fall sick the 24th. day, &c. about 11 in the forenoon: will be oppressed in that nature, as is inserted herein before upon the 25th. of May.

*The 25th. &
26th. day.*

Those that shall fall sick upon the 25th. day, &c. about 8 or 9 of the clock in the night: as also upon the 26th. day, about 1 of the clock in the morning: will be afflicted, as upon the 15th. of January.

*The 28th.
day.*

And those that shall be taken sick upon the 28th. day of this Month of July, about 3 or 4 of the clock afternoon: will be sensible of those distempers, specified at the 17th. of January,

August

Monthly Collected.

Augusts Observations.

THE Sickness and Distempers of this Month in the general : especially at the beginning , and about the middle thereof, will prove perillous to diverse people , in regard of the Malevolent and Chollerick temper of the Cœlestiall bodies herein. And violent feavers, or some pestilent diseases, will (its probable) appear very much in some places at these times : as I have somewhat hinted in the Observations of this Month in my Almanack for this Year of 1671. Printed and Published.

As unto particulars, &c. Whosoever shall fall sick upon the first day hereof, about 5 of the clock in the evening: will be oppressed, as is expressed upon the 24th. of January.

Those that shall fall sick, upon the second day hereof, about 4 or 5 of the clock afternoon : well be afflicted (in all probability) as at the 23th. of January : and will be in an high feverish condition.

And the distempers of those which shall happen to fall sick upon the 5th. day of this Month, about 2 or 3 in the morning : will be such as are mentioned at the 25th.

Those that shall fall sick upon the 10th. day hereof, about 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 or 9 of the clock in the morning : will be sadly troubled with a violent feaver ; or some sad hot fierce disease, and will be in great danger of death. This time will be a very ill time to be taken sick, in regard of the present Configurations and disposition of the Cœlestiall bodies. And the Sick will in a high measure be sensible of those griefs and infirmities of body, mentioned at the 30th. of January : but in a far more violent manner then is there mentioned.

Those that shall happen to be taken sick upon the 11th. day.

Physical Observations,

day, &c. about 8 of the clock at night will be oppressed as at the 4th. of January.

*The 16th.
day.*

Those that shall fall sick upon the 16th. day hereof, about 7 or 8 of the clock in the afternoon, as also upon the 17th. day, about 3 or 4 in the morning: will be afflicted as upon February the 6th.

*The 17th.
day, 2 or 3
afternoon,
and 18th. day*

Those which shall fall sick, &c. upon the 17. day, about 2 or 3 afternoon: as also upon the 18th. day hereof, about 3 or 4 in the morning: will be sensible of those distempers specific at January the 10th.

*The 23th.
and 24th.
day.*

Those that shall chance to be taken sick upon the 23th. day, about 7 or 8 of the clock at night: as also upon the 24th. day, at 8 or 9 in the morning: will be subject to those disease, described at the 13th. of February.

*The 24th.
and 25th.
day.*

And those that shall fall sick upon this said 24th day of August, about 8 or 9 of the clock at night, as also upon the 25th. day, about 9 or 10 before noon, will be afflicted as at January the 17th. &c.

*The 31th.
day.*

Whosoever shall happen to fall sick upon the last day of this Month, about 2 or 3 in the afternoon: will be subject to those distempers inserted at the 21th. of February, about 10 or 11 at night.

September

Monthly Collected.

Septembers Observations.

THose that shall fall sick upon the first day of this The 1st. day.
September, about 6 or 7 of the clock in the morning; will be fencible of such distempers, as are inserted at the 25th. of January. And those that shall fall sick upon this first day, about 10 or 11 before noon: will be oppressed as is mentioned at February the 21th. at 10 or 11 at night.

Whosoever shall be taken sick upon the second day, &c. The 2^d. day.
about midnight: will be fencible of such distempers, as are inserted at July the 10th.

Those that shall fall sick upon the 7th. day of this Month The 7th. day.
of September, about 7 or 8 of the clock at night, they will be stuffed with gross humours. The disease and distemper will proceed from to much swilling and drinking. The sickness will be most prevalent in the night time. The party will be subject to a Delirium, or will appear in a Frenckick condition, as being somewhat outrageous: in danger of a sharp burning Feaver, will be much thirsty and desire Wine. There will be a probability of a looseness, or the Sick will much complain in the Belly, or an extraordinary rotten Cough, with continual defluxion of Rheume from the Head into the Throat, wherewith the Sick party will be almost suffocated. The Sick will be in danger of a Dropsie, and the Belly in a swelling condition.

Those which shall fall sick upon the 8th. day, about 2 or The 8th. day.
3 of the clock in the morning: will be afflicted in that manner, as is inserted at the 4th. of January. And those that shall fall sick upon the same day, about 6 or 7 in the afternoon: will be lyable to those distempers, mentioned just before upon the 7th. day hereof.

Whosoever shall fall sick upon the 10th. day hereof about The 10th.
8 or 9 in the morning: will be oppressed with such distempers as are inserted at the 23th. of May, at those words
day.

Physical Observations,

in the observations of that day, which are mentioned at July the 17th.

The 14th.
day.

Whosoever shall chance to fall sick, upon the 14. day, hereof, about 5 or 6 in the morning: will be oppressed as at January the 10th. And those that shall fall sick upon this 14th. day, about 8 or 9 in the morning: will be oppressed as at February the 6th. but the disease will be various and unconstant.

The 15th.
day.

Those that shall fall sick upon the 15th. day, &c. about 10 or 11 in the morning: will be afflicted as upon the 12th. of January.

The 17th.
day.

Whosoever shall fall sick upon the 17th. day hereof, about 8 or 9 of the clock in the morning: will be oppressed with such distempers, as are inserted at the 4th. of April.

The 20th.
day.

Those that shall fall sick upon the 20th. day, about 11 or 12 at night: will be under such distempers, as are mentioned at the 17th of January.

The 21th.
day.

The sickness and distempers of those that shall be taken sick upon the 21th. day, about noon: will be such as are expressed at the 13th. of February.

The 22th.
day.

Those which shall fall sick upon the 22th. day hereof, about 11 or 12 of the clock at night: will be oppressed as at January the 20th.

The 25th.
day.

Whosoever shall fall sick, &c. upon the 25th. day of this Month of September, about 6 or 7 in the morning, will be afflicted, as upon the 12th. of April.

The 28th.
day.

Those that shall fall sick upon the 28th. day, &c. about 9 or 10 of the clock before noon: will be afflicted, as upon January the 25th.

The 29th.
day.

And those that shall happen to be taken sick upon the 29th. day hereof, about 10 or 11 before noon: will be oppressed, &c. as upon February the 21th.

Octobers Observations.

The 1st. day.

Whosoever shall fall sick upon the first day hereof, about 3 or 4 of the clock in the morning: will be

Monthly Collected.

be afflicted, &c. as at the 28th. of January.

And those which shall fall sick upon the third day here- The 3d. day.
of, about 4 or 5 in the morning : will be oppressed as at April the 21th.

The sickness and distempers of those which shall fall sick The 5th.
upon the 5th. day hereof, about 10 or 11 before noon, day.
will appear of the nature, &c. mentioned herein before, at the 4th. of January.

Those that shall happen to be taken sick upon the 6th. The 6th. day.
day of this Month of October, about 1 or 2 in the afternoon, and the 11th.
as also upon the 8th. day hereof, about 4 or 5 in the after- day.
noon, will be afflicted in some measure, as at Janu. the 6th.

Whosoever shall fall sick, &c. upon the 9th. day hereof, The 9th. day about noon : will be oppressed as at January the 8th.

And those that shall happen to be taken sick upon the 11 The 11th.
day of this Month, about 10 or 11 before noon : will be day.
afflicted, as at January the 10th.

The sickness and distempers of those that shall fall sick, The 12th.
about the 12th. day hereof, about 11 or 12 at night, will day.
be as are specified at January the 12th.

Those that shall fall sick upon the 14th. day hereof, about The 14th.
7 or 8 of the clock at night : will be oppressed as upon the day.
15th. of January, about four in the morning.

And whosoever shall fall sick upon the 15th. day of this The 15th.
October, about 2 or 3 in the afternoon : will be oppressed as day.
is mentioned at the 15th. of January, at 3 in the after noon.

Those that shall fall sick upon the 18th. of this Month, The 18th.
about 2 or 3 in the morning, will be afflicted as I have be- day.
fore mentioned at January the 17th.

And the distempers, of those which shall fall sick upon The 20th.
the 20th. day hereof, about 7 or 8 of the clock in the morn- day.
ing, will be such as are inserted at the 20th. of January.

Those that shall fall sick upon the 22th. day hereof, a- The 22. day bout 5 or 6 of the clock in the morning, will be afflicted as at 5 or 6 in upon the 24th. of January, but in a far worse manner. the morning.

Whosoever shall happen to be taken sick upon the 22th. The 22th.
day hereof, about 5 or six in the afternoon : will be op- day, at 5 or 6
pressed, as upon the 23th. of January. afternoon.

Physical Observations;

The 25th.
day.

And those that shall be taken sick upon the 25th. day, about 2 or 3 in the afternoon : will be afflicted as upon the 25th. of January.

The 28th.
day.

The sickness and distempers of those, that shall fall sick upon the 21th. day hereof, about 6 or 7 in the morning : will be as upon January the 28th. And those that shall fall sick upon the 28th. day, about 3 or 4 of the clock afternoon : will be oppressed as upon July the 10th.

The 30th.
day.

And those that shall chance to fall sick upon the 30th. day of this very Month of October, about 7 or 8 of the clock at night : will be in some slight manner oppressed, as is specified at the 30th. of January.

Novembers Observations.

The 1st. day.

Whosoever shall fall sick upon the first day of this Month, about 6 or 7 of the clock at night : will in plain terms be much oppressed, and will undergo a very sharp sickness, and will be in great danger of death, (for so at this time the Heavens declare) yet as unto the nature of the distempers, they will be even in a manner, such as are specified at January the 4th.

The 4th. day.

Those that shall fall sick upon the 4th. day of this November, about 7 or 8 of the clock in the morning : will be afflicted in a high measure, as is mentioned January the 6th.

The 5th. day.

Whosoever shall be taken sick upon the 5th. day hereof, about 5 or 6 in the morning : will be distempered in that manner, as is inserted at January the 8th.

The 6th. day.

The sickness and distempers of those which shall fall sick upon the 6th. day hereof, about 2 or 3 in the afternoon, will appear to be of the nature, mentioned at February the 6th.

The 7th. day

Those which shall fall sick upon the 7th. day hereof, about 8 or 9 of the clock afternoon : will be oppressed, as upon the 8th. of January.

The 10th.
day.

And those that shall be taken sick upon the 10th. day of this Month of November, about 2 or 3 in the afternoon, will be under such distempers as are inserted upon the 12th. of January.
Who-

Monthly Collected.

Whosoever shall fall Sick upon the 11th. day hereof, a- The 11th. bout 10 or 11 at night, will be afflicted as at January the 15. day.

Those that shall fall sick upon the 13th. day hereof, about The 13th. 9 or 10 of the clock before noon, will be sensible of those day. distempers, expressed at February the 13th.

And whosoever shall happen to be taken sick upon the The 14th. 14th. day of this November, about 8 or 9 of the clock in day. the morning: will in some measure be oppressed as at January the 17th.

Those which shall chance to be taken sick upon the 18th. The 18th. day hereof, about 1 or 2 of the clock in the morning, will day. be oppressed, as at the 20th. of January.

Those that shall fall sick upon the 22th. day, &c. about The 20th. 5 or 6 of the clock in the morning: will be afflicted as at day. January the 24th.

Whosoever shall be taken sick upon the 21 day, about The 21th. noon, or 1 of the clock afternoon: will be distempered, as day. at February the 21th. at 10 or 11 at night. And those that shall fall sick upon this very 21th. day of November, about 8 or 9 at night, will be oppressed, as at January the 25th.

- Those which shall fall sick upon the 25th. day hereof, a- and 25th. bout 11 or 12 at night, &c. will be afflicted, as upon January day. January the 28th. formerly herein mentioned.

Those that shall be taken sick upon the 28th. day of this and 28th. Month, about 1 or 2 in the afternoon: will be distempered day. in such sort, as is inserted at July the 10th.

And those which shall be taken sick upon the 29th. day, The 29th. about 1 or 2 in the morning: will be afflicted, as at January day. the 4th. And those which shall happen to be taken sick upon this 29th. day, about 8 or 9 before noon: will be oppressed, &c. as at the 7th. of September past.

Decembers Observations.

ANd whosoever shall be taken sick upon the second The 2d. day. day hereof, about 11 or 12 of the clock at night: will be much sensible of such distempers, as are inserted, at February

Physical Observations,

February the 6th. but in a worse manner, then is there expressed.

The 5th. day. Those that shall fall sick, upon the 5th. day, about 8 or 9 of the clock in the morning: as also upon the same day, about 2 or 3 in the afternoon: will be afflicted as upon the 10th. of January. And those which shall fall sick upon this 5th. day, about 11 or 12 of the clock at night: their distempers will appear to be such as are mentioned at February the 6th.

The 9th. day. Those which shall be taken sick upon the 9th. day hereof, about 9 or 10 before noon, will be subject to such distempers, as are specified upon January the 15th.

The 11th. and 12th. day. Whosoever shall fall sick upon the 11th. day hereof, about 5 or 6 of the clock afternoon, as also upon the 12th. day, about 8 or 9 of the clock at night, will be oppressed as at January the 17th.

The 13th. day. Those which shall fall sick upon the 13th. day, about 1 or 2 in the morning, will be much afflicted, as upon the 20. of January, but not altogether in such a violent manner.

The 16th. day. Whosoever shall happen to be taken sick upon the 16th. day of this December, about 11 or 12 at night: will be oppressed, as upon the 23th. of January.

The 19th. day. Those which shall fall sick upon the 19th. day hereof, about 5 or 6 in the morning: will be under such distempers, as are mentioned at the 25th. of January past.

The 21th. day. Whosoever shall happen to be taken sick upon the 21th. day of this December (being the Feast of the Holy Apostle St. Thomas) about 7 or 8 in the morning: will be afflicted as at the 21th. of January. And if they shall happen to be taken sick upon this 21th. day of December, about 1 or 2 in the afternoon: they will be sensible of such distempers, as are before herein inserted at July the 10th.

The 24th. day. Those which shall be taken sick upon the 24th. day hereof, about 5 or 6 in the afternoon: will be oppressed as upon January the 30th.

The 26th. day. The sickness and distempers of those which shall fall sick upon the 26th. day hereof (being the Holy Feast of Saint Stephen the Martyr,) about 10 or 11 before noon: will be such such as are inserted at the 4th. of January.

Monthly Collected.

Those which shall fall sick upon the 28th. day, &c. (be- The 28th.
ing the Feast of the Holy Innocents) about 7 or 8 of the day.
clock at night, will be oppressed, as at the 6th. of January past.

And lastly, Those which shall fall sick upon the 29th. The 29th.
day hereof, about 11 or 12 of the clock in the morning: day.
will be afflicted as is mentioned upon the 23th. of May past: beginning there at those words, accordingly inserted at the 17th. of July, for directions therein.

Thus, have we given you herein an account of the sundry choice days, and times, in every Month, throughout this Year of 1671. for any one to be taken sick in: as also the several Diseases and Distempers, which will then attend them, according to the exact course, and various disposition of the Heavens; And according as the Moon has recourse Monthly unto the Superiour, and Inferiour Planets.
Now such as shall fall sick at any other times in the Year, then those which we have here before mentioned: And do desire to be informed of the nature and quality of their Sickness and Disease, and how they are then concerned by the Heavenly Bodies. They must have recourse unto some Astrologian, who by observing the Position of Heaven, at their first falling sick, or at the demand of the Que-rent: will give them full satisfaction therein, and which cannot otherwise be done, without erecting a Scheam of Heaven for the purpose. And because you may see how this may be performed, I will here give you an example thereof following:

An Astrological Example, shewing a way, tending to a further discovery of Diseases, in this said Tear of 1671.

A Dmit any one should fall sick upon the 8th. day of March, in this Year of 1671. at 17 Minuts, past one of the clock in the afternoon: And should desire to know what their distemper is, and how it will be with them in their sickness, &c. For the resolution hereof, I erect a Scheam of Heaven, and have recourse unto the Heavenly bodies, in this manner:

Seeing here, that Leo is ascending now at this time, and Jupiter is therein, it intimates: That the party that shall be taken sick at this time, will be very hot and thirsty, and in a feaverish condition. That the Disease will proceed of putrified humours, That the Blood will be overheated. The Head some what distempered. The Sick party will have a Colour in the Face. The Heart afflicted and faint, and there is some putrification lodged amongst the Vitals. Besides, as the Moon at this time is in Cancer: so the Sick parties Stomach will seem oppressed with raw and cold matter; The Sick will have little or no appetite to victuals. Cold watry humours will appear in the Stomach: and flegm will much abound there. And the

Monthly Collected.

the sick will be now and then subject to vomiting. And sith that Saturn is Lord of the sixth House, and in Pisces. It imports, that the Sick party will be inclining to the Gout, in the Feet or Toes, and be sensible of some pain in those Members, occasioned by cold and moist distempers there. And sith also, that ♄ Lord of the 6th, is in the 8th. House, it gives some cause to fear that the sickness will be dangerous. But in regard the Planet ♄ is Lord of the 8th. House, and there is no malevolent Aspect betwixt him at this time, and the Sun Lord of the Ascendant: And likewise, that the Ascendant it self, and the Moon are not afflicted by him, it gives hopes that the sick at this time will recover, though with some difficulty. You may see more of this, &c. in that little Piece of mine, called the Astrological Physician, formerly Published. The Disease at this time, seem to arise, chiefly from some cold or wet, got in Travelling, and perhaps may at last turn to an Ague. And as to the parts of the body, principally afflicted. They will be the Heart and Stomach. If not also some swelling or Dropsical humours in the Legs or Feet. The like may be done as any other time, in the Year whatsoever; for any person by erecting and examining a Figure of Heaven, &c.

Thus has diverse Astrologians in former ages, in this manner delivered true Judgement upon Sick people: and found out their true distempers. So we read of Johannis Ganivetius, how that in the year of our Lord God 1418, the 24th. of August, before four of the clock afternoon: in the hour of ♄, a certain Learned Man, named, Johannes Morerius, came unto him, to enquire concerning a certain Brother of his, that was then sick: what should be the end of his Disease, [Death, or Health. The said Ganivetius having erected his Scheam, and observed well the order and disposition of the Heavens, finding the Planet ♄ (as he saith) within a degree of the Ascendant, and that in a moveable sign, and sundry other bad Testimonies: as also ♄ Lord of the House of the ♀ in the 8th. house of Heaven, both combust and Retrograde: he the said Ganivetius immediately judged, that the party would be mad, and so dye, which accordingly happened (as he affirms) at four of the clock, the next morning after; the propounding of the question: so that the Sick had like to have killed his Master and others, (as the said Ganivetus tells us) and after the sick being in his Chamber close shut up, at length broke a post, and so from thence cast himself down head-long, and dyed.

Physical Observations,

The same Ganivetus tells us further of another, that came unto him upon this account, and propounded a question unto him, namely Henricus Amici, a Doctor of Physick, born at Brussel, &c. whose business was to know, whether an acquaintance of his (a learned and eminent Man) being then sick, should dye or recover. It was (as he the said Ganivetus writes) in the Year of our Lord 1431. the 17th. of August, being a Tuesday about 7 of the clock in the morning: who upon recourse had unto the Cœlestial bodies, found the ♀ going to ♄ with the ☉ at that time: she being then under the ☉ Beams, which was (as he accounts it) an ill sign. But in regard he also found ♀ Retrograde, afflicting the degree ascending, he judged that the sick party would quickly fall into a Frensy, and dye: and that within a day or two after the propounding of the question: which (as he affirms) happened accordingly. You may hear more of these things of Gulielmus Anglicus, in suo tractatu, de Urina non visa.

Here

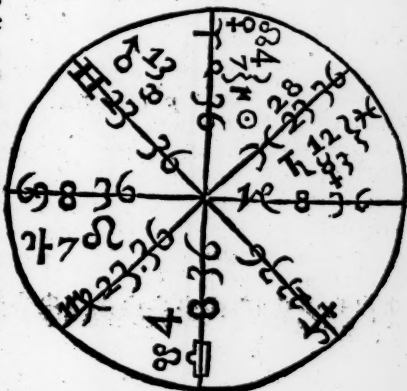

Here follows an Octogonal Figure,

fitted for the before mentioned time, viz. March the 8th. 1671. 17 Minuts past 1. P. M. shewing the Judical and Critical times, belonging thereto, according to the Moons Course.

THe first time, to be here taken notice of, according to this Figure here inserted, is when the ☽ applies to the 23 degree and 36 Min. of ♍, which is upon the 14th. of March, about half an hour past noon: the ☽ then coming to a Semiquadrate of her true place, in the former foregoing Figure of March the 8th. and this is as it were half a Crisis. Therefore this 14th. of March, about noon, as aforesaid, the before mentioned distempers of the 8th. of March, mentioned at the former Figure, will more or less manifest themselves. And in regard the ☽ is in ♍ of ☉ the same day, about 11 or 12 of the clock in the forenoon: It may prove a dangerous day for the sick party. But the true Crisis or Critical time is when the ☽ comes to the 8th. degree, and 36 Min. of ♍: which happens upon the 15th. day of March, about 30 Min. past 6 of the clock, at night, which I prove by the Golden Rule thus

As the *☾*s Diurnal motion, upon the said 15th. of March 11 Degree, 55 Minuts. To 24 hours.

So her distance at Noon the same day, (from her true ☐)

3 Degree, 14 Minuts. To 6 hours 30 Minuts.

And sith the Moon, then comes the same day at four of the clock in the afternoon, too * of 12, and afterwards, meets with no violent Aspects of the malevolent Planets;
it's an argument of a good Crisis: and that the worst of the sickness is over. Crisis est velox motus morbi, ad salutem, vel ad mortem. Avicenna in Canticis. Deo Gloria.

Licens'd and Entred, according to Order.

